Is ENGIE building a battery energy storage system in Belgium?

A render of the project in Vilvoorde. Image: Engie. Multinational utility and IPP Engie has launched construction on a 200MW/800MWh battery energy storage system (BESS) in Belgium. The France-headquartered firm announced the start of construction in the 4-hour duration project in Vilvoorde, Belgium, on 5 July.

What is a battery energy storage system (Bess) in Belgium?

The battery energy storage system (BESS) facility in Belgium will have a capacity of 2,800MWh of electricity and is expected to make a significant contribution to the energy grid by providing stored renewable energy during periods of low solar and wind energy production, reducing the country's reliance on gas power plants.

Is ENGIE launching a 200mw/800mwh battery energy storage system in Belgium?

Utility and IPP Engie has launched construction on a 200MW/800MWh battery energy storage system (BESS) in Belgium.

What is the largest energy storage project in Europe?

A first flagship energy storage project in Belgium After commissioning four battery parks in France offering total energy storage capacity of 130 MWh, this project will be the Company's largest battery installation in Europe.

How will Sweco contribute to Belgium's energy grid?

The park will make a significant contribution to the energy grid by providing stored renewable energy during periods of low solar and wind energy production — thereby reducing Belgium's reliance on gas power plants. Sweco will deliver the design of the civil engineering and electrical engineering works of the battery energy storage system (BESS).

What funding is available for R&I projects in Belgium?

Belgium: Energy Transition Fund. Support for R&I projects for energy. In this context, several publicly funded R&I projects which also include storage, are being performed by Belgian research centres. The funding for energy related R&I projects in 2022 amounts to 25 million €.
